

Excess All Areas (Freya Johnson) (Volume 1)

Absolutely loved it. Definitely a book with the feel-good factor. There are twists and turns along the way, together with a few surprises. Lovely romance. A great story with brilliant writing. Feisty fun. Humiliated by her boyfriend the day she turns thirty, Freya boards a last minute flight to Corfu to visit her best friend, Emma. Little does she know - this holiday will change her life forever. Enter Hollywood film star, Nicholas Kaden whose entourage is stirring up the village of Kassopi while filming his new movie. He's hot, he's unexpectedly different, but is he for real? Caught up in a media frenzy, feeling unwelcome and uncomfortable in Nicholas' movie world, Freya battles with the ghosts of her past and the uncertainty of her future. Can she help Emma, keep her own big secret and find out what Nicholas is hiding before she feels the urge to run away again?
