

Feng Shui 2008 Calendar: Living in Harmony with the Natural World

This best-selling calendar, now in its tenth year, points the way to a deeper relationship between man and nature. Feng shui is an ancient Chinese practice concerned with relationships between our personal chi energy and the chi energy of places. Evocative nature photographs by Gary Braasch and Tom Bender illustrate feng shui principles such as Li - Intention and the Physics of Qi. The text includes poetic reflections and useful specific guidance from sustainable architect/feng shui practitioner, Tom Bender. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this calendar will benefit The Lower Nehalem Community Trust (LNCT). The LNCT is a 501(c)3 land trust that focuses on wetlands conservation and fish and wildlife habitat restoration. Sample Caption: Intense power comes to places we inhabit via purposeful and profound connections with the rest of nature. Our experience of the realities that we truly inhabit, and our entire lives, can be transformed through experience enabled and empowered by such places. Reach out and connect.
