Contemporary romance set on a ranch. Includes tasteful love scenes. Excerpt. Reprinted by permission. All rights reserved. Zack was leaning toward her slightly, one hand over the back of the stall, the other free to do whatever it wanted. She suddenly wanted his arms around her. She suddenly wanted a lot more than that. As if he was reading the message in her eyes, he did put his arm around her--and he bent his head to hers. The first touch of Zacks lips wasnt anything like Jenny expected. Shed expected hard, possessive and arrogant. His lips were firm as if he knew what he wanted. But they were coaxing, too...encouraging her to respond. If she had thought further than that, she might have saved them both a lot of trouble. But she didnt, because all of her concentration was on the feel of his mouth, the touch of his tongue against hers, the strength of his arms as he pulled her closer, enveloping her fully in his embrace. She couldnt fall in love with Zack again. She couldnt let her future be affected like that again. She wouldnt. Wrenching away, she looked up at him and shook her head. No. Youre not going to make me want you and then turn around and leave again. It wont happen, Zack. I wont let it. I deserve more than that. Without waiting for a response from him, she returned outside to watch Dusty. If Zack built any sense of trust with this horse, it would be broken when he left. Neither of them needed Zack Decker, and shed better not forget that. Watch for Books 3 and 4 in Karen Rose Smiths REUNION BRIDES series in 2012!
